

Prayer to Release Us Into Financial Freedom

I repent that I have not treated and valued the Kingdom of Heaven as I should and that I have exchanged the value of the Kingdom of Heaven for the desires of my heart in the form of an earthly Kingdom.

Lord, I repent for worrying about life, food, and clothing. I repent for laying up treasures on earth where moths and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal. I repent for robbing You, Lord, and not freely and cheerfully giving my offerings to You out of a heart of love.

Lord, I repent for loving money, for serving Mammon, for greed and for covetousness. I repent of the belief that money is the answer to everything in my life. I repent of expecting money to be my answer and my friend. I repent for forsaking You as my life source and for focusing my eyes on the pursuit of wealth to my own harm and the harm of others. I repent for choosing to serve Mammon in preference to You and thereby filling my life with darkness. On behalf of my ancestors and myself, I renounce every agreement made with Mammon by using money in ungodly ways and for ungodly purposes. I repent for being double-minded with money and unstable in all of my ways. I choose to hate Mammon and to love you, Lord, with my whole heart. I choose to place my treasure where my heart is, in the Kingdom of Heaven, for You to use as You choose.

I repent for making money my defender, security, and protection.

I repent for believing that chants, spells, fate, superstition, and luck will provide the money I need.

I repent for myself and my family line for using diverse weights and measures and not paying employees their due.

I repent for making money, not You, Lord, the center of my universe.

I repent for pride, gaining wealth by dishonest means, and vain striving for silver and gold.

I repent for myself and my family line for not exercising my responsibility to pay money that was owed to governmental agencies.

I repent for defrauding, cheating, lying, and stealing from the government. I also repent for a begrudging and bitter attitude in paying my taxes.

I repent for not recognizing Your anointing on government to provide for the basic necessities of our corporate life. I repent for criticizing, complaining, and cursing my government for not providing enough for the people.

I repent for myself and my generational line for seeking, accepting, treasuring, profiting from, and spending blood money. I also repent for adding blood money to my children's inheritance. On behalf of my ancestors, I choose to forgive those financial institutions that have foreclosed on mortgages and stolen property which rightfully belonged to me and my descendants as an inheritance.

I repent across my generational line for abandoning and sacrificing family and relationships, land, culture, and even faith in God to seek gold and earthly treasures. I choose to seek after the ultimate treasure of my Lord Jesus Christ with all my heart.

I repent on behalf of myself and my ancestors for believing in a poverty mindset and for being stingy with the body of Christ. I declare that Jesus came to give us abundant life. Father, in your mercy, please free me and my future generations of the consequences of this.

I repent and confess the lie that godliness implies poverty, lacking in basic necessities, living in poverty, always being in need, and that the children will never procure their education. I choose to believe and accept that God will supply all of my needs, that there will be an inheritance for a thousand generations, that my descendants will not have to beg for food, and that all my needs will be met.

I repent for being disconnected from the River of Life of God's endless supply. I choose to be connected to the River of Life where God will grant me the ability to acquire wealth for His Kingdom. I repent for spending money on that which does not satisfy and for not coming to God's living waters to drink.

I repent for myself and my generational line for hardening my heart and shutting my hand against my poorer brothers in their need.

I repent for not feeding the poor or taking care of the widows and orphans.

I repent of holding back my possessions and services to get higher prices from those in need. I declare that I will open my hand and heart to the poor, sharing my resources as You lead, so no one will lack, Your power will not be hindered and Your grace will remain.

I repent for not bringing unity in the body of Christ. I choose to not hold back from the needy. Jesus, please break the curses and evil that have come against me and my generational line for demanding unfair prices from the needy. Lord please release Your blessings and grace on my selling and trading, especially to those in need.

I repent for myself and my family line for not receiving the inheritance that You had for us; and I choose now to receive the inheritance, abundance, and gifts that You have for us. I ask that they will come in such abundance that we will be able to leave an inheritance for our children and grandchildren.

Lord, please disconnect my ancestors, me, and my descendants from money that was tied to freemasonry, secret societies, secret agendas, covert operations, ungodly funding of churches and institutions and for money tied to the building of ungodly altars and funding prostitutes.

Lord, break off the curse of sowing much and bringing in little, of eating and not having enough, and of earning wages only to put them into a bag with holes.

Lord, please destroy the connectors and cleanse the ley lines attached to earthly treasures.

Lord, connect me to You alone. I choose not to hold on to anything but You. I give everything I have to You.

I repent for myself and my family line for the belief that the gifts of the Holy Spirit could be purchased or sold. I break the curse that the money in my generational line and in my life will perish with me.

I repent for my wickedness and my generational wickedness and ask that my heart be restored into a right relationship with You.

Lord, I repent for making my giving an obligation to You and not a free act of my love. Lord remove the canopy of law and the canopy and yoke of obligation from me. Lord, allow me to live in your grace and your provision.

I ask You, Holy Spirit, to be the One who directs me in what to give. Lord, make my giving come from an attitude of gratitude and love. I choose to seek and follow Your guidance in my giving.

Lord, I repent for not trusting You and not trusting You to provide.

On behalf of my ancestors and myself and for future generations, I choose to forgive those who have swindled me, especially banks, financial institutions and government agencies; I forgive those who have charged me and my ancestors usurious interest, and who have tried to keep us in poverty and have disinherited our children.

I declare that I will be content in You and in my wages in whatever financial state I am in.

Lord, thank You for giving me the creativity to produce wealth in seed. Holy Spirit, teach me what to sow, what to reap, and what to harvest for your purpose.

I declare that I will eat of the bread of life and delight in your abundance.

I declare that I am one of many members of the body of Christ in whom are all the hidden treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

Lord, please release into me the blessing and joy of giving freely in accordance with Your will for my life.

Lord, help me to see money with spiritual eyes, knowing it is Your resource and belongs to You. Lord, please release the treasures that the enemy has stolen from me and my family line.

I declare that your Word says: You will go before us and make the crooked places straight; I will break in pieces the gates of bronze and cut the bars of iron; You will give us the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places; You are the One who gives power to get wealth that You may establish Your covenant which You swore to our fathers, as it is this day; The blessing of the Lord makes one rich, and You add no sorrow with it; The generous soul will be made rich, and he who waters will also be watered himself. Thank You for enabling me to leave an inheritance to my children's children. Lord, please give me a circumcised heart, so You can release Your treasure from heaven.
